Cuban Affairs—Religious Liberty and Freedom of Election will be Conceded by Spain to Cuba—Proceedings in the Statistical Congress—Loss of the British Mail Steamer Caranotic—Official Letter from the Sultan of Turkey to the Viceroy of Egypt—English Press on Spanish Affairs.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—The Star, radical organ, to-day states that the difficulty between the United States and Spain on the Cuban question, is in a fair way of settlement,

A rumor of a proclamation guaranteeing religious liberty and freedom of election, shortly to be issued by the Spanish government is a better omen; but if the reports of the military government in Cuba are true, the concession must be prefaced by one more essential, namely: That Cubans be permitted to live to enjoy them.

Advices have been received of the total wreck of the Indian mail steamer Caranotic off the Island of Shadum, in the Red Sea. All the passengers and crew succeeded in reaching the shore in safety, but the mails and the cargo were lost. The steamer had a large amount of specie on board for this city, which was lost.

DUBLIN, September 17.—In the Synod of Armagh a resolution excluding the laity from deciding questions of doctrine and discipline has been rejected by a large majority. The Synod has also rejected a resolution looking to the representation of minorities, and has adjourned until the 30th inst.

CORK, September 17.—The Farmers' Club have adopted resolutions demanding a perpetuity in land tenures; the placing of rents on a fixed basis, and the abolition of distress for rent. A national tenants' league was also organized.

SPAIN.

LONDON, September 17.—The Telegraph has an editorial on the relations between Spain and the United States wherein it says: The recognition of the Cubans would place Washington in the wrong on the Alabama question. With what consistency can rights be granted wandering guerrillas, not formidable enough for a blockade. If England desired to put the accusors of her policy out of court, she should encourage the policy ascribed to President Grant. We prefer to take the question on the broad ground of common interests. War between Spain and America would be a material injury that would be equally apportioned. The shipping of the latter would be a prey to privateers and her commerce, with the profits, would pass to neutrals. The reduction of the national debt would be arrested, internal organization checked, and public discontent would revive. With the growing burdens, Spain would lose Cuba, but continue Spain, with her obstinate tenacity of resistance, her great undeveloped rsources, her power to attack American trade, and her comparative invulnerability to retaliation. America would gain at a heavy cost what might for years be more a loss than a gain; would be entangled in a war combining a maximum cost and a minimum glory. Such considerations cannot pass unregarded at Washington, since there is still ground for the hope that peace may be preserved.

The Examiner, on the subject of Spain and Cuba, has the following: "By the history of analogy there is no longer a physical impediment to the representation of Cuba in the Spanish Cortes. Expediency recommend it; but for Cuba is it not too late. If not sold or surrendered, her own inhabitants must in some form be mortgaged to the Americans, with the certainty, that once in power, she will eventually become theirs. It is better, perhaps, for Spain.

MADRID, September 17.—It is thought the cabinet at Washington has become somewhat more conciliatory since the receipt of telegrams from Mr. Sickles, American Minister, that the over excited temper of the Spanish people will compel the government to continue the war for the suppression of the insurrection in Cuba.

The King of Italy has given his consent to the selection of the Duke of Genoa as King of Spain.

The strike of the workmen at Barcelona continues. It has assumed alarming proportions.

A decree summoning the Cuban Deputies to Cortes at Madrid will shortly be published. The fleet is nearly ready to sail with reinforcements for Cuba.

TURKEY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 15.—The Grand Vizier has dispatched a second official letter in the name of the Sultan, to the Viceroy of Egypt, in which he expresses satisfaction at the receipt of the assurances of fidelity on the part of his highness, which his note contained, as also his pleasure at the compliance with, and strict adherence to the conditions of the recent firman manifested by the latter. The Sultan, however, specially insists that the Viceroy shall, in the future, observe strictly the following points of the royal missive, viz.: That the Egyptian army shall be reduced; that thirty thousand needle guns alone shall be ordered in Europe or elsewhere, and that all small arms beyond that number as well as any ironclad vessels of war which may have been bargained for or are now in course of construction, shall be countermanded; that the public taxes of the territory shall be levied and collected in the name of the Sultan only; that taxes shall be imposed only in the name of the Sultan; that the annual Budget of Finance shall be submitted regularly to the Sultan for authorization previous to its promulgation; that his approval be asked for in all cases of contract of foreign loans; that the Viceroy shall not hold direct official intercourse or communication with foreign governments, and that he shall afford, through his officers, better treatment to Muesulman pilgrims journeying to and from the Holy Shrine. The Grand Vizier adds in conclusion that, in compliance with these terms, and an understanding as to a faithful executive observance of them, the Sultan will be glad to see the Viceroy in Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 17.—The Khidive of Egypt raises difficulties respecting the carrying out of that portion of the second official letter of the Sultan relative to budget loans.

PRUSSIA.

THE HAGUE, September 17.—During the session of the Statistical Congress yesterday, Mr. Chadwick moved for a collection of statistics respecting the military service with a view to the reduction of standing armies.

Mr. Ruggles, of New York, supported the motion in a lengthy speech wherein he contrasts the armaments of Europe with those of the United States. He exampled the recent war in America for the suppression of the rebellion, and the extirpation of slavery. When all was over the return of the soldiers to their peaceful avocations, to pay the costs of that war, did not impoverish and weaken the country as much as standing armies do in European States.

PARIS, September 17—Prince Napoleon embarked from Calais on his yacht to-day.

M. Peretry, one of the members of the Corps Legislatif, has written a letter, in which he demands that the deputies shall re-assemble on the 25th of October, of their own free will, if the government does not convoke the Chamber according to the Constitution.

ST. LOUIS.

The Red Stockings—Case of Moody Against the Owners of the Steamer Flirt.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, September 17.—The Red Stockings Base Ball Club left for Omaha this morning on the North Missouri Railroad.

Depositions are still being taken in the case of Frank Mooney against the owners of the steamer Flirt for inhuman treatment. No person except Mooney himself has yet testified positively that Mooney was shot in the mouth at the time of the fracas, though some saw him bleeding at the mouth. The theory of the defense, although no depositions in their behalf have been taken as yet, is evidently that Mooney, when ordered to perform some duty on the boat, was stubborn and refractory; that the mate punished him to compel obedience; that a pistol was used with which he was beaten on the head, and during the castigation it went off but shot nobody; that Mooney was ordered off the boat to the Island to carry on wood and refused to do so, seating himself upon a log and obstinately refusing to return to the boat; that the boat was detained some time through his refusal to go aboard, and finally was compelled to shove off without him.

Ohio State Fair—A Grand Success.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

TOLEDO, Sept. 17.—The Ohio State Fair closed to-day. It can be safely stated to be the most successful in all respects of any yet held. The number of admission tickets sold was 79,000 against 75,000 at Dayton, 1867, the highest of any preceding year. The aggregate of receipts were from $28,000 to $30,000. The number of entries, 4,300, being about 1,000 mor than in any former year. The most gratifying degree of order, sobriety and good feeling distinguished the whole affair, and everybody, officers of the board, exhibitors, visitors and citizens, are delighted. As evidence of the natural resources, developments and advancements of the region of country tributary to Toledo, it was an occasion in which the people of this city may well take pride, and which will do much towards attracting in this direction the industry, skill and capital of the country.

An Alleged Swindler Arrested, Discharged and Re-arrested.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, September 17.—Waddy Thompson, who was arrested at St. Louis in company with Perry Fuller a few days since, for alleged revenue frauds, and sent to New Orleans under the United States Marshal for trial, was taken from the Marshal at Jackson, Tennessee, yesterday, on a writ of habeas corpus and brought before Judge Lee, of Law Court, this city, and discharged on the ground that the United States Commissioner only had the power of a magistrate to bail or commit, and could not order the prisoner to be carried to another State, and ordered the discharge of the prisoner. Thompson was immediately re-arrested by the Deputy United States Marshal's order, on a warrant issued by Commissioner Morrison, of this city, on the same charge, and was afterwards released on bail to appear for trial to day.

WASHINGTON, September 13, 1869.

ABSENT ON DUTY.

By direction of the Secretary of War, Brevet Brigadier General Thomas M. Vincent, Assistant Adjutant General, will proceed to Springfield, Ills., and Chicago, Ills., under instructions from the Adjutant General of the army, and return to his station here on the completion of this duty.

CUBAN AFFAIRS.

It is stated that Admiral Hoff had an interview with Secretary Robeson and Admiral Porter yesterday on Cuban affairs. It is claimed that the Admiral's sympathies have always been with the Cubans, but that his instructions required him to remain strictly neutral, and it would have been obviously unseemly for him to indulge in any demonstrations in favor of the insurgents. He thinks the struggle will be a protracted one unless some outside interference takes place.

PATENT CASE DECIDED.

In the interference case of Mason against Romley, assignee, relating to the manufacture of screw caps for fruit jars, Judge Fisher, of the Supreme Court, for the District of Columbia, rendered a decision awarding the patent to Romley. It is held that if Mason invented the article, his delay of eleven years, before applying for a patent, works a forfeiture of right.

Case of Saunders, the Defaulting Teller.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, Sept. 17.—The case of David E. Saunders, the defaulting teller of the North National Bank, came up to-day before Commissioner Hallet.

Charles G. Nazro, President of the Bank, testified as to the discovery of the defalcation, which amounted to $132,000.

Wm. B. Lee and Jno. M. Danforth, of the firm of Lee, Danforth & Co., brokers, testified that they had bought stocks for the defendant, requiring the usual margin of ten dollars a share. No inquiry was ever made by them as to where the defendant got his money.

Upon a cross examination Mr. Danforth stated that at one time his firm had a margin of 59,000 dollars received from the defendant, and that the commisions of his firm, received by their dealings with him, might have been 20,000 dollars.

The case was then continued, the bail remaining at 50,000 dollars.

It is stated by the officers of the Bank that the loss to the Bank will be about $96,000, after deducting the bonds of Saunders and the amount received by brokers.

Dr. Reynolds, in supporting his resolutions, accused certain of the city papers of having been paid for the articles which they had contained in their columns during the trial of Rev. Dr. Cheney.

Just before adjournment, two new canons were introduced having reference to Ecclesiastical trials. They were referred to the Committee on Canons and Legislation, to report at the next Convention.

The Central Illinois Methodist Episcopal Conference cast its vote to day on lay delegation as follows: Ayes, 74; nays, 13.

While firing them off Mrs. K. interfered and threatened what she would do if the thing was kept up. Mrs. A. then hired a small boy to fire the crackers. Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Miss Jennie Worrell, the most charming of the sisters, was the recipient of a benefit at the Opera House last evening, on which occasion "Barbe Blue" was presented. The house was full and the entertainment excellent. The sisters give a farewell matinee this afternoon. Monday evening Miss Emma Waller, the great tragedienne, will appear, supported by the Opera House company.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—The entertainments at the Pittsburgh Theatre are of highly amazing and interesting character, and the house is crowded nightly. A matinee for the accommodation of ladies and children will be given this afternoon. Everybody should hear James Taylor, the great comic vocalist.

MASONIC HALL.—The Davenport Brothers, who have been holding forth to large audiences since Tuesday night, at Masonic Hall, give their last entertainment this evening. The house was crowded last evening, and the exhibition was of the most wonderful and astonishing character. The "dark seance" is wonderful in the extreme. The nature of the experiments and the circumstances under which such astounding results are produced, is bewildering and mysterious beyond all human comprehension.

THE CIRCUS.—Col. Ames' New Orleans Circus and Menagerie exhibited on the Diamond Square, Allegheny, to large audiences. The menagerie contains a large collection of rare animals, birds, etc., and the circus company is one of the largest and perhaps the best now travelling in the United States. The stud of horses is an exhibition of itself well worth the price of admission. An entertainment will be given at 10 A. M., to-day, for the accommodation of the orphans in the several Orphan Asylums, who will be admitted free of charge. The regular afternoon and evening performances will conclude the stay of this mammoth establishment in this city.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Monday evening, the 20th inst., the Gregory Troupe, which it will be remembered entertained hundreds of our citizens nightly for over two weeks in succession, at the Old Theatre last season, will commence a brief season at the Academy of Music. In addition to the many attractive features connected with the Gregories, is the celebrated Clodoche Troupe of gratesque dancers and pantomimists. We feel confident that the Gregories will draw large houses, as there are a number of distinct features in the entertainment, any one of which is worth the price of admission, among which are Madam Gertrude and her trained dogs, Willie Gregory in his spiral act and little Bessie in her amusing songs. Seats for sale at Hoffman & Hale's Opera House Music Store.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

A MAIDEN'S "PSALM OF LIFE."

Tell us not the idle jingle,
"Marriage is an empty dream!"
For a girl is dead that's single,
And women are not what they seem.

Life is real! Life is earnest!
Single blessedness a nob!
"Man thou art, to man returnest!"
Has been spoken of the rib.

Not enjoyment and not in sorrow,
Is our destined end or way;
But to act that each to-morrow
Finds us nearer the marriage day.

Life is long and youth is fleeting,
And our hearts, though light and gay,
Still like pleasant dreams are beating,
Wedding marches all the way.

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
Be a heroine—a wife!

Trust no future, howe'er pleasant,
Let the dead Past bury its dead!
Act—act in the living Present!
Heart within and hope ahead!

Lives of married folks remind us
We can live our lives as well,
And departing, leave behind us,
Such examples as shall "tell."

Such examples, that another,
Wasting time in idle sport,
A forlorn, unmarried brother,
Seeing shall take heart and court.

Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart on triumph set;
Still contriving, still pursuing,
And each one a husband get.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Comparatively few, outside of those immediately interested, are aware of the grandeur and magnitude of the gathering of the "American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions," to be held in the Third Presbyterian church, in this city, commencing Tuesday, October 5th, and closing Friday morning, as to its numbers, important discussions and interests. It will be an event in our city, that will arouse the people of all evangelical denominations here, as well as in contiguous places. The commingling of the churches, will tend to broaden the spirit of union and brotherly love. In connection with the spiritual influence of the meeting, it will afford an opportunity of hearing speeches, in many instances, of an impromptu character, of rare occurrence. In view of the vast concourse that is expected and usually attends its annual meetings, the Committee of Arrangements, Rev. F. A. Noble, Joseph Albree and William Thaw, have issued a circular inviting the pastors of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity, to aid in providing entertainment. The organs of the different denominations in this city have endorsed the request and urge the people to respond heartily and promptly. We hope the spirit of hospitality and catholicity will be equal to the emergency, and that it is only necessary to make the request. Dr. Hopkins, President of Williams College, will preside. Dr. Todd, of Pittsfield, Massachusetts, will preach the annual sermon on Tuesday evening. Besides these, many eminent men, both of the ministry and laity, will be present, and also a large number of Missionaries, some of whom have rendered distinguished service to the Master, will be in attendance, and address the meeting from time to time. Persons who desire to entertain will send their names at once to the Committee.

Thus far fifteen of the Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church have voted on the lay delegation question, that is to change the Restrictive rule of the Church, to make it legal to introduce the lay element. The aggregate of the vote is 1,195, yeas 925, nays 270, more than three-fourths majority, which is requisite to effect the change.

The Erie Conference of the M. E. Church meets at Franklin, Pa., Wednesday, September 29. This is one of the patronizing Conferences of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, and has representatives on the Publishing Committee.

Thursday, the 23d inst., will be observed as the twelfth anniversary of the Fulton street Prayer Meeting, New York. The exercises will be very interesting.

The American Board of Foreign Missions will send out twenty-nine missionaries this fall, of whom twenty go for the first time.

Drs. Jacobus and Fowler, the Moderators of the Presbyterian General Assemblies, have addressed a letter to Pope Pius Ninth, combatting the assumptions contained in the encyclical letter.

According to the Liberal Christian, the best way to fill up the pews of a church is for half a dozen men of the congregation to scatter themselves up and down the streets, and at corners, and invite young men to go to the church, literally compel the people to come in, as illustrated in the parable of the marriage of the king's son.

It seems probable that the report that two hundred negroes are studying for the priesthood, in Rome, for the South, is true. These colored men are designed specially for their brethren in the South. If the report is true, it illustrates the practical working of the Catholic system to educate the freedmen in the faith of Rome.

Rev. C. H. Doane, who has been entrusted with the work of soliciting donations for the American Catholic College in Rome, has received up to the last report the grand sum of one hundred and sixty-eight thousand dollars.

Reference was made to the movement at Christ Episcopal church, Allegheny, to provide special services for persons of foreign birth, who had been raised and educated in the Church of England, since which, we have learned, it is assuming a tangible form, and promises to do good. The Rector, Rev. B. F. Brooke, is striving also to adopt proper means to organize the colored Episcopalians in the two cities and vicinity into a society. Meetings are being held to facilitate the object, and it is expected ere long the project will be consummated, a regularly organized colored Episcopal church.

From the course of Bishop McIlvaine, of the Episcopal Diocese of Ohio, in some diocesan matters, it is thought he is less favorable to reforms in that Church, than formerly. A writer in the Church Journal asserts that he is becoming more conservative, and ventures the prediction that he will yet make the "tallest High Churchman in the land."

The Methodist is credited with the report that a man in Iowa, in the last stages of consumption, was lately baptized by immersion and thought his health benefitted thereby.

Thirteen new Jewish Synagogues have been established in this country during the Jewish year 5,629, just closed.

Church corporations are sometimes shrewdly arranged, financially. The Reformed (Dutch) Church in New York, is a case in point. The vestry of the old Nassau Street church rented the building for a postoffice, and for many years drew a rent of twenty thousand dollars. Then they sold it for two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and bought six lots on Fifth avenue for thirty thousand dollars, which are worth two hundred thousand dollars. They also bought, about thirty years ago, four lots in Lafayette Place, on which they also built a church. For these lots they paid ten thousand dollars. They now ask four hundred thousand dollars.

According to the Advance the St. James Episcopal Sunday school of Brooklyn, New York, celebrated its first anniversary by a ball, which lasted from 4 P. M. to midnight. Quadrilles, gallops, schottisches, polkas, etc., were interspersed. It ended with "Home, Sweet Home."

A report is afloat, we believe by the New York Observer, that during the past year two hundred and seventy-one churches have been dedicated, embracing nine denominations. Of this number seventy-two are Methodist. According to the statistics of the Methodist Episcopal Church, just published, the net increase of churches (houses of worship) last year was five hundred and seventy. Besides these over one hundred and forty new and improved churches were built to substitute old ones, making the number of Methodist Episcopal Churches last year seven hundred and ten.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE LITERATURE OF THE AGE OF ELIZABETH. By Edwin P. Whipple. Published by Fields, Osgood & Co., Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

Mr. Whipple is among the few living writers competent to prepare an intelligent work on the "Literature of the Age of Elizabeth." He is peculiarly constituted for analytical researches, and no better field could offer than the theme he has selected. The style of Mr. Whipple is rigidly severe in construction, and abounds in curt and sharply turned sentences. Running through the lectures there is a cheerful vein and brilliancy that dazzles and itensifies the reader. The master minds portrayed, Shakespeare, Johnson, Locke and others, are not only treated as they live in history individually, but the influence they had upon the age. Notwithstanding the prominence of the intellectual element in all Mr. Whipple's writings, there is such a charm and vivacity infused, that he is popular, and his works are extensively read. The Literature of the Age means simply the influence which originated or culminated in the reign of Elizabeth, and which did not altogether cease to act at her death. These lectures are well worth publication, and ought to be widely circulated.

PROTESTANT GEMS OF THE PRAYER BOOK. By Rev. J. Pleasonton Du Hamel, Diocese of Delaware. Published by Clayton, Remsen & Haffelfinger, Philadelphia. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

These "Gems" are simply samples of the whole Prayer Book, which, it is claimed, directly protests against Catholicism. The author has set these gems in a framework that challenges the admiration and homage of the Christian world. Coupled with this array of beautiful thoughts is the weaving together of historical events that give interest and value to the collection. The author evidently is tinged with a degree of conservatism that opposes the radical reforms of the age, and is an advocate of Apostolic succession.

MILFRED GWYNNE. A story of a Wilful Life. Published by Henry Hoyt, Boston. For sale by F. G. Rieneman, Third Avenue, Pittsburgh.

Lessons are learned by the light of others' experience, that leave lasting impressions. The discipline of life is sometimes severe, and to some an unreasonable restraint on free agency. The story narrated here furnishes ample material for the guidance of our youthful readers, who are disposed to be wayward. Better, however, to be like Milly, who suffered intensely for her wilfulness, and use the lesson for future guidance, than wreck body and soul irrecoverably. It is a good book to put in the hands of young people.

MAN IN GENESIS AND IN GEOLOGY: Or, the Bible Account of Moses' Creation, tested by Scientific Theories of his Origin and Antiquity. By Joseph P. Thompsom, D. D., LL. D. Published by Samuel R. Wells, New York. For sale by J. W. Pittock, Pittsburgh.

Scientific scholars and seekers after truth will welcome the publication of this work, because it seeks to illustrate the harmony of truth in the works and the Word of God. Much has already been written upon this subject to counteract the theories and speculations of rationalistic writers, but this work especially is calculated to accomplish good in establishing and reconciling questions bearing upon it. It will prove a valuable aid to those seeking light on questions of such vital importance. Dr. Thompson discusses Chronology in the light of Egyptian monuments. The theories of Darwin and others are reviewed, and also the Sabbath and Woman question are treated at some length.

EMILY'S BRACELET: or, The Wedding Present. Published by Henry Hoyt, Boston. For sale by F. G. Rieneman, Pittsburgh.

This is a pretty story, with characters portrayed in life-like style. It cannot fail to interest the reader. Throughout there is a high moral tone, illustrative of the beauty of Christianity. The plot is excellent, and the finale ends joyously.

RUBY GRAY'S STRATEGY. By Mrs. Ann S. Stephens. Published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia.

This novel is regarded as superior to recent works of this well known and popular writer. In point of construction and development, it is fine, and will doubtless command hosts of readers. The style is glowing and rather highly colored, but it is generally the most popular. The immense sale of her numerous works is significant of her hold upon the public mind.

THE AMERICAN JOE MILLER. Published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia.

Lovers of comic literature, who enjoy funny paragraphs, with illustrations to suit, will find much in this stout pamphlet to laugh over. Its reading will not tax the brain severely.

THE WORKS OF HORACE. By Prof. Thos. Chase, of Haverford College. Published by Elredge & Brother, Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

Chase & Stewart's Classical Series are well-known in educational circles, as being among the best published. "Ceaser's Commentaries," "Virgil's Æneid," and "Cicero's Select Orations," have been published sometime. These works are gotten up in elegant style, both as it regards type, paper, and otherwise. This volume has been prepared with great care, and every authority worthy of consulting has been brought into requisition to produce the text pure. The explanatory notes will go far towards aiding the student. We look for the same favor from the public for this volume, that has been awarded to the companion works.

COUNTESS GISELA. From the German of E. Marlitt. Author of "The Old Mamselle's Secret," etc. By Mrs. A. L. Wister. Part 2. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Phila.

Readers of the first part will be pleased to have the second, which develops more fully the extraordinary plot of the story. It presents the leading characters in strong language, and depicts phases of humanity in a light hardly possible, and yet such people live in society. The interest in the story takes a strong hold on the reader from the outset, The charming and central figure, Countess Gisela, finally rewards Berthold with her hand.

HARPER BROTHERS, New York, have sent us numbers 326 and 327 of the "Library of Select Novels." "False Colors," by Annie Thomas, is a story of English life, and presents the characteristics of society in the charming manner of this lady. Her previous works have given her much notoriety. There is a freshness and vigor of style, and naturalness in the characters drawn, that makes her works popular. The author of "St. Olave's" has shown much of the same artistic excellence in "Meta's Faith," No. 327, that is noticeable in previous works of the author. The English press speak in glowing terms of "Meta's Faith," for its naturalness and force in delineating character.

"Love Powders."

It is believed by a large class of our citizens that the "Love Powder" business has been carried on in our city to an enormous extent, and that certain well-known citizens have not only been extensively engaged in the manufacture of these and like articles, but that the dealers have made thousands of dollars out of their operations. Before the war the business was not only larger, but more lucrative, from the fact that the wares advertised in glowing circulars were sent to the South, where the believers in the clap-trap set forth in the circulars were counted by the thousands. The dealers in this city made up a decent mail daily, their correspondence being carried to and from the Postoffice by the bag full. All the letters received contained more or less money from the silly dupes at distant points, who believed in the wonderful workings of the "love powders." It is claimed for these powders, by the manufactors, that once administered by man or woman, they cause the party drugged to fall desperately in love with the giver, and place him or her wholly subservient to their will. Of course, the representation is very attractive. It is of a nature, too, that wins friends not only in foolish young men and girls. but also in evil, designing persons, who possess no heart and less conscience, who would willing administer the drug, even at the sacrifice of life. We are led to make these remarks from the fact that a love powder case was before the Police Court yesterday afternoon, in the shape of a libel between two dealers in these nostrums. Albany Paper.

A YOUNGSTER who had been detected in the act of stealing fruit stored for winter consumption, was told by his father to prepare himself for a flogging. The inexorable parent, armed with a horse-whip, went in quest of the culprit, whom he found with a hump at which Quasimodo himself would have shuddered. "What on airth have you got on your back?" asked the wondering sire. "A leather apron," replied John, "three double. You told me to prepare myself for a severe flogging, and I guess I've done the best I could."

UDOLPHO WOLFE, ESQ., once well known to the public by his extensive advertising, died on the 14th at New Brighton, Staten Island, from congestion of the lungs. He leaves a large fortune.

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea. Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, Sept. 17, 1869.

The metal market is firm with a demand fully equal to the arrivals, and the stocks in yard are comparatively light; compared with last week, however, prices are unchanged. Standard brands of mill irons are selling at full prices, while foundry irons are rather quiet, most of the foundries having laid in a pretty good supply some weeks since.

In regard to manufactured iron and nails, there are no new characteristics worthy of special notice. There is a continued fair demand, as orders are coming in pretty freely from all directions, but manufacturers still complain that they have little or no margin.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was about stationary last evening with four feet in the channel. Weather close and cloudy with indication of rain.

No arrivals or departures excepting the packets. The Kenton and St. Marys from Cincinnati, were due last night, and will doubtless be found in port this morning.

The Belle for Parkersburg, and the Kenton from Portsmouth will depart today.

The St. Marys, Capt. T. C. Sweeny is the regular packet for Cincinnati to-day, leaving at noon. She is a large and splendid sidewheeler, and, therefore, offers superior inducements to passengers.

The Maggie Hays, Capt. B. C. Martin, is filling up steadily for St. Louis, and will be the first boat out.

—The towboat Ajax ascended the falls at Louisville on Monday last.

—The Jas. L. Graham has been purchased by Capt. Jas. Handmore for $4,400.

—The Mary Davage and Sallie arrived at Louisville on Wednesday en route for Pittsburgh.

—The Great Republic, was at Memphis on Wednesday en route for New Orleans, with a trip.

—The Emma No. 3 and barges succeeded in working over French Island bar Monday, and proceeded on their way.

—Captain Leathers, of the Henry Ames, has very considerably reduced the rate of passage between Vicksburg and New Orleans.

—The Sallie V. has been sold to Capt. G. B. Miller, of Dyersburg, Tenn., and will be placed in the trade between Memphis and Dyersburg.

—Captain Wm. Holcroft will command the Dexter, in the Louisville and New Orleans trade, this season. He has gone to Cairo to bring her to Louisville.

—Captnin Jim Montague has sold his Iron Mountain farm, fowls, horses, cattle and plows, and gone on the river again, having discovered, he says, that it is not easy to run a farm and a steamboat too.

—The coffer dam sunk inside of General Weitzel's dam on the falls, for the purpose of blasting out the ledge of rocks, was washed loose by the swell of the steamer Neville, and, in the words of the contractor, went to ——.

—The Madison Courier, of Monday, says: Gibson & Wymond are loading 10,000 oil bbls for Pittsburgh. The Emma Graham will come off the docks at the Madison ship yard, next Wednesday, and load for Pittsburgh.

—W. C. Aiken, clerk of the Ida Stockdale, writes as follows: "Benton, Aug. 31, I arrived from Crow Island night before last. All our freight is under way since last Friday evening, and will probably, be here the beginning of next week. All the Nick Wall's is under way."

—The St Louis Democrat, in noticing the fact that Capt. H. G. McComas has been sole owner of 36 boats and part owner in 52, says he must be one of the wealthy men of the land. Consequently the value of his lands and houses in various portions of the country must be immense.

—Says the Cincinnati Commercial, of Thursday: The Tigress arrived from Pittsburgh, yesterday, with nine barges of coal, returning last night with a tow of ten empty barges. The Blue Lodge arrived with five barges of coke. The James Gilmore with seven barges, the Wild Cat with six barges and the N. J. Bigly with six barges of coal, passed down for Louisville.

—The following in regard to business at St. Louis, from the Republican, may be received with some degree of allowance, as St. Louis like Chicago, is disposed to "blow" considerably: Business on the landing was very brisk, and one could hardly find a "channel" through the immense piles of grain and other imports, and the boxes and miscellaneous freights of our exports. St. Louis has never experienced a more busy season than this, and the daily shipments to New Orleans and other Southern points, is growing to such a magnitude, as to even astonish those who profess to have seen a busier time. Let the "croakers" continue their doleful cry of a "dull season, nothing doing," etc., but for one day stand upon the levee and witness the immense trade which is being carried on, her own river commerce, and then judge whether we are in the full bloom of a prosperous trade, or languishing for the want of business enough to keep the grass from growing on our levee.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp, 57¼f.

U. S. BONDS at Frankfort, 87⅜.

GOLD closed yesterday in New York at 136½.

THE Republican victory in Colorado is confirmed by telegraphic advices this morning.

THE attention of our readers is directed to very interesting reading matter which appears on our second and seventh pages this morning.

IT WILL be a piece of gratifying news to his many friends hereabouts to learn that R. STOCKETT MATTHEWS, the gifted orator of Maryland, will address our Republican citizens next Thursday evening at City Hall. The mere announcement of his name is enough to draw thousands to hear him intelligently and eloquently discuss the important issues of the day.

THE RECENT terrible calamity at the Avondale coal mines, will doubtless be made the theme for many pulpit sermons throughout the country to-morrow, and we earnestly hope that the appeals which will be made to the charitable for substantial aid to the legion of widows and orphans left by the awful accident, will be generously responded to and such a sum realized as will add lustre to the philanthropic character of our people.

WATER-SUPPLY FOR PITTSBURGH.

The question of furnishing an adequate supply of tolerably pure water for the inhabitants of this city will come up for decision at a special meeting of Councils to be held on Monday next. This is not a measure of subordinate importance. It involves not only the expenditure of a good deal of money, but likewise the comfort and health of a large and rapidly increasing population. Indications have not been lacking recently of an impatience, on the part of the electors, at liberal or extravagant appropriations of manicipal funds. But pure water is not a luxury to be dispenssd with when it can be obtained. It is a necessity for which too much cannot be paid, provided a less price will not obtain it.

While the tax-payers want an abundant supply of good water, and are willing to pay any reasonable sum for it, they are sure to be restive if experiments shall be undertaken that are not sanctioned by men who have had ample experience in the matter of water-supply, and have special scientific attainments sufficient to give the weight of authority to their suggestions.

Nor is it of so much consequence to have this question disposed of at once or soon, as to have it fully considered under all the aspects in which it is presented, so that the decision, when made, shall prove to be thoroughly sound. The various sources of water-supply which are at command have been long under investigation, not simply by the public and the press, but by persons of acknowledged competency, and duly employed to that end. If any additional facts have been recently disclosed which are sufficiently powerful to set aside or materially modify the conclusions reached two years or more ago, they have not fallen under our observation.

The responsibility is with the Councils, and we doubt not they will act with such discretion and promptness as will meet the popular approval.

THE CUBAN SITUATION.

The telegraph reports that the sympathies of Admiral Hoff, commanding our Gulf squadron, are with the Cuban insurgents. It would be safe to assume that the feelings of the men who are at the head of national affairs at Washington run in the same direction. Rebels are nearly always popular with everybody except those against whom they rise in arms. When the Southern States revolted their cause was popular almost all over Europe. If good wishes from that quarter could have availed, the rebellion would have proved successful.

Some thinkers maintain that this marked and universal sympathy with rebellion, is only a vague and unconscious protest against the evils which necessarily inhere in all Governments devised and conducted by fallible human beings. Other thinkers contend that this sympathy is only the expression of a natural delight which most people feel at seeing their fellows involved in trouble. Whether one or the other of these classes of thinkers, or neither, has the fact with them, we will not discuss. Certain it is that the advocates of popular government always rejoice whenever a monarchy encounters a serious revolt. In the case under consideration, there are peculiar reasons why the people of this country should wish well to the Cuban insurrection. Spain has notoriously governed Cuba about as badly as it could. Indeed, it is a perversion of terms to call Spanish rule in Spain a government. It has been, rather, organized robbery.

But the United States, during the late rebellion within its own borders, set up some principles of international law, and claimed damages from Great Britain under them, which stand in the way of its action in behalf of the Cuban insurgents. Not prepared to relinquish its claims upon England for the Alabama spoliations, and not being able to bring the controversy in relation thereto to a conclusion, it is constrained to remain passive. How long this will last it is not easy to perceive. Recent advices indicate that it may be extended so as to make the case of the Cuban rebels altogether hopeless.

SAFETY IN COAL MINES.

That mining is an employment which subjects all persons engaged therein to special hazards, is abundantly manifest, particularly to residents of mineral districts. Science has disclosed various instrumentalities by which the dangers can be lessened, if not entirely avoided; but the cupidity of proprietors, or the selfish demand of the mass of coal consumers for cheap fuel, or both of these causes combined, has led to the avoidance of the additional expense which the use of these instrumentalities necessarily entails. Just now there is a general clamor for the highest possible degree of safety in mines. But the cheerful concession of such increased prices for coal as would enable the proprietors to meet the heavy costs of the security, we fail to discover. The fact seems to be assumed that these costs can be defrayed without seriously impairing current profits, or, at least, without reducing profits below a fair proportion. We apprehend that the balance sheets of proprietors may conduce to a different conclusion.

The fact can neither be denied nor concealed that the wages of labor almost uniformly bear a definite and just proportion to the hazards entailed by different employments. In point of fact, miners are now receiving, and have been for a number of years past, high rates of renumeration—nearly or quite double the average of skilled workmen pursuing vocations above ground. Whether this higher average of compensation is actually sufficient to cover the greater risks run, we need not here stop to consider. All we desire in this connection is to call attention to the obvious fact that if work in mines shall be reduced, by the application of approved scientific means, to the average chances of casualties which prevail in other labor, the wages of miners will not long remain above those of other toilers. In the very nature of the case, this must be so.

Some powder-makers pay a certain rate of wages, stipulating to maintain the wives and children of such of the workmen as may be disabled or killed by explosions. Instances are reported in which the proprietors of a mill support two hundred such persons. In these instances, the wages are made enough less to warrant the proprietors in taking the chances of damage likely to be inflicted on the workmen. It does not matter how many times this problem may be turned round, the final result will be the same; either proprietors must directly incur the cost of reducing the risks incident to the business in which they are engaged, or the workmen must be indemnified by augmented wages. In either event, the consumers of the product will have to pay higher rates for so much of it as they have respectively occasion for.

If it shall turn out upon a careful scrutiny, that miners are not now paid larger wages than most other classes of workmen, it may be taken for granted that on the general introduction, either through the force of law or of public opinion, or the demand of the miners themselves, of new and costly means of additional security in the mines, the consumers of coal will have to submit to a permanent average increase in price. Nor ought this to be objected to; and if objection should be raised, it would be of no avail. Whatever tends to increase the cost of producing and delivering any commodity is sure to augment the price that must be paid for it.

We commented, a few days ago, upon the effort made last spring to secure the enactment of a proper law for reducing the hazards of mining, and upon the causes of the failure of that effort. Let us add a few additional words. All the anthracite counties are largely Democratic, as are also most of the bituminous in which mining is prosecuted on a liberal scale. This has been so constantly since the beginning of the mineral developments. By comity among the members of the two Houses of the General Assembly, legislation to meet local wants has always been left to the representatives of the districts specially interested. By far the greater part of the miners are Democrats. The mining counties are Democratic in consequence of their votes mainly. Why have the Democratic leaders whom they have promoted year after year to places of honor and influence systematically neglected their welfare in this important matter? Nay, why have they opposed as often as an attempt has been made to secure a proper legal remedy for the evils endured? We do not like to present the case under this aspect, because it is one of very high general concernment; but there seems to be no other way of doing full justice in the premises.

The danger now is that legislation may be precipitated under excitement and without duly calling up the material circumstances which ought to be taken into consideration. A well balanced statute is required; one that shall compel the proprietors, under stringent penalties, to adopt and effectively maintain all means of safety which have been found of real value, and which shall sharply punish miners who shall interfere, under any pretext whatever, with the constant and vigorous movements of this machinery, no matter what it may be. The bill that passed the House, and failed in the Senate, last spring, is said to contain suitable provisions. Possibly it embodies all that is needful; but upon mature reflection we incline to the opinion that it stands in need of revision to adapt it to all the contingencies that are liable to arise.

If the men who may be elected to the Legislature from the mining counties will give this subject their attention,—will inspect personally as many of the mines as they well can,—and will consult fully with both proprietors, engineers and miners, they will bring to the task of framing a proper law a good deal of definite and valuable knowledge. They will certainly understand the evils to be cured in all their ramifications, and be able to devise remedies that shall thoroughly meet the necessity, without damaging interests that are of incalculable consequence to the State and the whole country.

But the public may as well understand first as last that the mining corporations and individual proprietors, engaged in the traffic for the full period of thirty years past, have not gained much over an average profit of ten per cent. on their investments. Some companies and individuals who dipped in about 1862, have made more, but if they shall stay in for a considerable time longer, their average profits will be greatly reduced from the points at which they now stand. The inference from these facts is obvious. The adoption of all the means of safety in mines which have been suggested by the newspapers would at least double the price of coal. Fortunately many of these suggestions are known by all practical men, proprietors, engineers and miners, to have no merit in them, and to have proceeded from utter ignorance of the points of danger to be guarded against. That the next Legislature will enact a general law for the regulation of mining, is now certain. It is altogether desirable that this law shall be molded under the influence of reason and knowledge, rather than of excitement and prejudice. When it shall take effect the profits of proprieters, the wages of miners, and the price consumers will have to pay for coal will be adjusted by those commercial laws, which, in the long run, prove superior to all combinations to put up or put down rates. It will not be marvelous, if many persons who now clamor loudly for the introduction and maintenance of the most costly means of safety in mines, shall clamor, some little time hence, with equal energy against the increased price of coal which the employment of those very instrumentatives may possibly render inevitable.

SUITS for damages against the city of St. Louis are accumulating. Mrs. Ellen Halpine asks $5,000 damages for fatal injuries received by her son, a child, through the unlawful and negligent obstruction of the sidewalk by wagons, carts and horses. W. C. Sampson sues for $10,000 for imprisonment in the calaboose for twenty-four hours without any charge or complaint being made against him. Pierre A. Berthold has also sued for $25,000 damages, sustained, he claims, by being thrown into a hole eighteen feet deep, which had been dug for the laying of water pipes.

A BOGUS insurance agent has been swindling farmers in Crawford county. His plan was this: He insured one man's property at a low rate and took his note for the amount; he went to another, sold him the note at a discount, and also insured his property, receiving cash therefor; he then went to a third farmer, insured his property, took his note, and then disappeared from the neighborhood. He is being looked after.

THE Avondale Relief Fund in the hands of Mr. George H. Stewart, the treasurer, at Philadelphia, amounted on Thursday to $24,145.16.

MINOR TOPICS.

THERE is probably no author now living whose dramas have been so successful or have so deserved success as those of Dion Boucicault. His has been almost the only pen, save Bulwer's, which has added what may be looked upon as permanent contributions to English dramatic literature. His latest production, Formosa, is accused of a boldness which renders it inadmissible to the polite stage, and critics are not wanting who urgently warn the dear public from risking the contamination of their minds by patronizing its performances. If a class of persons, synonymous with these critics, had lived in the days of Shakespeare, there would have been a number of fine, appealing critiques—now existing or else lost to the world—upon the horrid immorality or destructive influence of Twelfth Night, Winter's Tale, Hamlet, Macbeth, etc. We have neither read nor seen Formosa, but we are familiar with the cry of the cant-hounds who make their reputations and their daily bread by seemingly pious appeals intended to incite precisely those feelings, the existence of which they profess to deplore; and we have no doubt that Mr. Boucicault has written something which, were it not for his prominence, which renders him fit prey for those creatures, would be considered neither more nor less immoral than the great majority of books and plays which are published to the world.

THE OLDEST MASON in the world should be sought for by Mr. Micawber, who was waiting for him; we know of no one equal to the oldest Mason for turning up. Unlike most aged centenarians he cannot be depended upon for any time, nor can he generally walk ten miles an hour like the periodical oldest inhabitant, but quite often he grows ten or twelve years older in a single fortnight. For instance, about a year ago he was named Johnston, and aged ninety-eight; then he was named something else and was aged one hundred and four years. Some time later he was David Eaton, of Virginia, aged one hundred and eleven, and now he is again David Eaton, but only one hundred and eight years old. This kaleidoscopic youth has never been appreciated by the fraternity, he is in no case an M. V. W. A. L. D. G. M. P. A. Y. M, but is invariably spoken of as a Master Mason, whose head is level and whose actions have always been on the square. We hope that his habits may become more regular so that we may from time to time chronicle his movements for years to come.

THE STORM which Mrs. Stowe has raised by her recent article on Lord Byron, in the Atlantic, is probably altogether without a precedent in literary history; but like other storms of human origin there has been a great deal of misplaced bluster and unjust fury. That Mrs. Stowe's article was unnecessary and in bad taste we, think none will deny, and any writer is justified in saying so, or even in doubting the reliability of Mrs. Stowe's authority; but many, not content with this have assailed her personal character, have accused her of pandering to the depraved tastes of the age and of writing the article in order to gain a little cheap notoriety. To say this of Mrs. Stowe, is simply to proclaim one's self an ignoramus. The woman who has given her energies to the promotion of great reforms, and whose name has rung through the world in every language louder and oftener than that of any other living woman, wears an armor from which such weapons will turn against their users. Much as we may regret the publication of such an article from such a pen, we must believe that the intentions of the auth oress were good and her sincerity unimpeachable.

IN LOOKING over the daily press of the period one constantly encounters gems of humor or wit which would do credit to the reputation of a Hood or a Jerrold. The reason of this is that most newspapers boil down a great deal of their matter into short paragraphs now, and, as everybody knows, brevity is the soul of wit. Every one of at least twenty papers gets off at least one good thing a month, at least one thing that, when we read it, causes us to be as suddenly and irresistibly tickled as if we had just snuffed a charge of pepper up our most sensitive nostril. These paragraphs, the successful ones of course, might be gleaned and harvested and by and by brought out in a book, which, though not altogether a fresh crop, would, we are sure, quite supercede the ancient Joe Millerisms and cut and dried puns which appear about once every five years in new editions. These gems, which are being lost every day, are, many of them, we feel sure, much better than those old ones were when they were new.

THE Philadelphia North American said, a few days ago, that the season for gunning accidents had not yet commenced. At present this can no longer be said. It seems as if every paper we glance at has some horrible account of the careless use of fire-arms and the fatal result thereof. Every State, and every portion of every State, seems to be too readily furnishing a warning example; but people will not remember. Enough persons have been killed, by these means alone, in the United States during the past score of years, to people a new State, and enough more have been crippled or maimed by the same means to fill all the offices in the new State, after it was peopled. The frequency of these affairs has become actually terrific, because the more frequent they become the less care there seems to be exercised in handling the shooting irons. Girls have their heads shot off and men their brains blown out; hearts are pierced and lungs bored every day, through the carelessness of some relative or friend. Such carelessness is criminal, but there is a sort that is worse; we refer to the intentional pointing and pulling of triggers of guns supposed not to be loaded. Frequently we have seen this done, and always feel like dealing summarily with the fool—for he is nothing else—who dares run so great a risk.

STUDENTS OF ETYMOLOGY will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Augusta J. Wilson nee Evans, has written another text book for their use. Although this novel is not yet out of the hands of the printers, and we have not yet seen it, we have no doubt it will be quite as admirably suited to their purposes, and as thorough Greek to the rest of the public as were Beulah, St. Elmo, Macaria and Inez. Doubtless some of the characters often exhausting their powers of being brutal to each other, will sit down together in some beryl paved corridor, from which the stairs of jasper wind to the rock-crystal dome, and enjoy a quiet little dialogue in coptic, Sanscrit or Arabic interrupted only by the rustle of the hair of the heroine upon the jewelled floor, while she stands in her bare feet upon the icy roof above, deeply immersed in the verification of one of the astrological problems of Zoroaster.

STATE POLITICS.

THERE is to be a Democratic meeting in Waynesburg on the 21st inst.

ASA PACKER is said to be the champion euchre player of Mauch Chunk.

REPUBLICANISM has become the synonym for economy and that of Democracy for extravagance. No better evidence of this can be found than the record of the State on national finances.

EIGHT more years of Republican rule at the same rate as the past eight will completely wipe out the State debt left us by Democratic rulers. Everybody who wants it done will accordingly vote for Geary.

EVERY Republican will appreciate the importance of the present campaign, in view of the fact that the election of Pershing would give the Democracy the control of the Supreme Court of the State, and enable them again, as last year, to deluge us with fraudulent naturalization papers.

GEN. R. C. COX, of Liberty, is an independent candidate for Treasurer of Tioga county. Gen. Cox was a candidate for nomination at the Republican nominating convention but failed to receive the sanction of that body. If a man is especially conceited, such a failure is almost sure to bring him out as an independent candidate, and the election which follows almost invariably takes the conceit out of him altogether.

IT IS asserted on the authority of Wm. F. Smith, of Philadelphia, that Asa Packer, who has claimed residence in that city since 1864, has only paid one income tax in all that time, amounting to about $32 50—beside a tax of $8 90 on watches and silver plate, which would be $41 40 in all. This statement is worth inquiring into on the part of the revenue officials of Carbon and Philadelphia. If Mr. Packer has really shirked the payment of his national as well as State, borough and county taxes, by shifting his residence, it is proper that the public should be officially informed of the fact.

THE Philadelphia Ledger speaks of Bill McMullin, leader of the copperhead roughs in that city, who threatens bloodshed on election day if the registry law is enforced, as follows:

"It Alderman McMullin has been reckless enough to utter such threats and there is anything but idle vaporing in his words, he will find on the side of the law and authorities thousands of men as brave and fearless as he can possibly be, although they are not in the habit of exhibiting their courage in as reckless and questionable ways. His 'crowds' would be outnumbered a hundred to one. There has been a great deal too much of this sort of thing, and it is time that all those who feel like indulging in it should be made to feel that there is no decent man of any party who will give countenance to it, and that there must be an end of these discreditable and reprehensible actions."

MAIL GLEANINGS.

EDWARD HERNDON, a colored man, died on the 15th, in the vicinity of St. Louis, from the bite of a mad dog received twelve days previous.

THE Krentz murder, at Cincinnati, remains involved in mystery, the Coroner's jury finding that death resulted from a pistol fired by some unknown person. One Adam Leider has been arrested on suspicion.

A LADY from Connecticut went to an eating house in Columbus, Ohio, leaving her bady on a seat in the Cincinnati train. The train left with the baby, and the mother was left in a high state of excitement to follow on the next train.

THE residence of Dr. J. T. Ray, in Meadville, was entered by burglars on the night of the 15th, and robbed of all the silverware, the thieves escaping without alarming the family. Fortunately they overlooked "silver wedding" presents. In view of the fact of the presence in or about the borough of a gang of burglars, the Republican recommends cross dogs, double barreled shot guns, revolvers, &c,

THERE was a curious bet made by two sisters, daughters of a wealthy farmer, at a horse race in Dubuque last week. The eldest bet on Wild Rose, the terms being that if she won the youngest sister was to remain single for the term of five mortal years; but that if she lost she must marry, within four weeks, a young man of her acquaintance. Wild Rose lost; the eldest sister is therefore held to the terms of her contract, and, being of true grit, declares that she will stick to her agreement.

AN ATTEMPT was made to murder Mr. N. D. Clutter, of Rich Hill township, Greene county, on the night of the 10th. Whilst returning home from a visit to a sick friend, two men sprang out from the bushes at the road side, and commenced a murderous assault, one of them striking him with a knife, cutting his clothing from the shoulder to the hip, whilst the other struck him across the back with a club. Mr. C. managed to draw his revolver, when the rascals fled, two shots fired after them unfortunately failing of effect.

THE STORM at Cleveland Thursday night, the Herald says, was one of the most terrific within the memory of the "oldest inhabitant." It burst forth in appalling fury, with vivid lightning, and thunder which seemed to shake the earth. This was preliminary to a perfect flood of rain, literally inundating the streets. During the storm a house on the West Side was struck by lightning and burned, and the wires of Steven's omnibus telegraph line were melted, the drops of molten iron falling in a shower to the pavement and cracking like torpedoes as they struck the water. At the Central Police Station the lightning entered on the fire alarm telegraph wire, and a ball of fire, seen to leap from the bell of the instrument, bursted with a report as loud as a pistol shot, the fluid then passing into the wall, scattering the plastering. No particularly serious damage is reported, save the burning of the house referred to.

THOU BRINGEST ME, LIFE—LUNG-WORT.

One of the truest and most suggestive ideas can be obtained from the caption at the head of this article; for of all diseases which impair human health and shorten human life, none are more prevalent than those which affect the lungs and pulmonary tissues. Whether we regard lung diseases in the light of a merely slight cough, which is but the fore-runner of a more serious malady, or as a deep lesion corroding and dissolving the pulmonary structure, it is always pregnant with evil and foreboding of disaster. In no class of maladies should the physician or the friends and family of the patient be more seriously forewarned than in those of the lungs, for it is in them that early and efficient treatment is most desirable, and it is then that danger can be warded off and a cure effected. In DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE you have a medicine of the greatest value in all these conditions. An alterative, a tonic, a nutrient and resolvent, succoring nature and sustaining the recuperative powers of the system. Its beautiful workings, in harmony with the regular functions, can be readily observed by the use of one or two bottles: it will soon break up the chain of morbid sympathies that disturb the harmonious workings of the animal economy. The harrassing cough, the painful respiration, the sputum streaked with blood, will soon give place to the normal and proper workings of health and vigor.

An aggregated experience of over thirty years has enabled Dr. Keyser, in the compounding of his LUNG CURE, to give new hope to the consumptive invalid and at the same time speedy relief in those now prevalent, catarrhal and throat affections, so distressing in their effects and so almost certainly fatal in their tendencies, unless cured by some appropriate remedy. DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is so thorough and efficient, that any one who has ever used it, will never be without it in the house. It will often cure when everything else fails, and in simple cases will cure oftentimes in a few days.

The attention of patients, as well as medical men, is respectfully invited to this new and valuable addition to the pharmacy of the country.

DR. KEYSER may be consulted every day until 1 o'clock P. M. at his Great Medicine Store, 167 Liberty street, and from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 at night.

A DEFENSIVE MEDICINE.

"In time of peace prepare for war," is a sound military maxim. "Let not the sickly season find you unprepared," is an equally good rule in medical jurisprudence. The man must be made of iron who finds himself at the close of summer as strong as at its commencement. Such a phenomenon is rare, even among the most robust of the human family. Muscular and constitutional vigor oozes out of us in the broiling weather of July and August, and few of us, at the opening of the Fall, are in the best possible condition to defy the unhealthy influences of the season.

Fever and ague and bilious remittent fevers, together with a variety of complaints that affect the digestive organs, the liver and the bowels, form a portion of the autumn programme. Bear in mind that exhaustion invites these disorders, and that staminal vigor enables the system to repel them. "To be weak is to be miserable," says Satan to his defeated legions, in "Paradise Lost," and the axiom is correct, though it comes from an evil source.

Hold then, ye weak and feeble, fortify yourselves against the invisible enemy that invades the Autumnal air. The best defence against miasma is a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This rare vegetable tonic will improve your appetite, stimulate your digestion, give firmness to your nerves, invigorate your muscular fibre, regulate your secretions, cheer your spirits, and put your entire physique in perfect working order. It is easily done. The standard tonic and alterative, which will recuperate and build you up, is not "hard to take," but, on the contrary, a pleasant medicine.

See, however, that you have the genuine article. There are imitations and counterfeits in the market, and they are all worthless or deleterious. Bear in mind that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is sold only in glass, (never by the gallon or cask), and that each bottle bears a label surmounted by a vignette of St. George and the Dragon, and our revenue stamp over the cork.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE SUNDAY MAGAZINE, A MONTHLY OF
Recreation and Instruction.
PROFUSELY ILLUSTRATED.
EDITED BY REV. THOMAS GUTHRIE, D. D

Messrs. J. B. Lippincott & Co. have the pleasure of announcing that they have concluded arrangements for the future publication, in this country, of Dr. Guthrie's "SUNDAY MAGAZINE," to commencing with the number for October next, forming the first of a new volume, to be, in respect to letter-press and illustration, a fac simile of the English Edition.

Since its commencement, THE SUNDAY MAGAZINE has enjoyed an enviable popularity in England—its circulation reaching as high as 140,000 copies per month and the publishers are confident that it only needs to be better known and be made more accible to the American public to become equally popular in this country.

The aim of the Magazine is to combine RECREATION, in its truest sense, with INSTRUCTION; and is thus happily expressed by the Editor: "My purpose, in one word, is to adopt the best and most varied means of calling off the mind from the secular subjects which necessarily forces upon it during the week; to awaken from their torpor those feelings of gratitude and adoration which the divine greatness and goodness should excite; and to make the regular return of Sunday as healthful to society as the showers which soften, fertilize, and beautify the earth, bringing with them the influence of heaven * * * * To make the Magazine interesting to cultivated minds without being unintelligible to men of ordinary education; to be read by people of all Christian denominations; to be of no class, of no sect, of no party, but belonging to all and profitable to all—such is its aim."

The coming volume, while still receiving contributions from those who have helped to raise the Magazine to its present standard, will continue to be instructive on religious topics, stimulating by its stories of the lives of the wise and good, and also interesting in its tales and sketches of life and character as to render it attractive to the homes of tens of thousands.

In connection with the new volume, it is enough to say that what it has been the Magazine will continue to be, with this addition, that it will avail itself of all the improvements which experience has shown to be desirable.

The following IMPORTANT SERIAL WORKS will be the leading features of the new volume:

I. SUNDAYS ON THE CONTINANT. By Thomas Guthrie, D. D., Editor.
II. EPISODES ON AN OBSCURE LIFE. Being Experiences in the Tower Hamlets. By a Curate.
III. ST. PAUL'S COMPANIONS. By John S. Howson, D. D.
IV. OUR LORD'S MIRACLES. By Geo. Macdonald, LL.D.
V. THE PORTRAIT OF CHARITY, as presented by St. Paul. By William Hanna, D.D.
VI. UPWARD GLANCES. Recent Revelations of Astronomy By Rev. Chas. Pritchard.
VII. HOW TO STUDY THE OLD TESTAMENT. By Prof. Lindsay-Alexander, D.D.
VII. THE STRUGGLES IN FERRARA. A Story of the Reformation in Italy. By Wm. Gilbert.

Each number will be PROFUSELY ILLUSTRATED from designs by eminent artists.

On the First of October will be published Part I. of the New Volume.

TERMS OF THE SUNDAY MAGAZINE.

PACIFIC RAILWAY GOLD LOAN.

Messrs. DABNEY, MORGAN & CO., 53 Exchange Place, and M. K. JESUP & CO., 12 Pine Street, N. Y., offer for sale the Bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway. These Bonds pay seven per cent. in Gold; have thirty years to run; are Free from Government Taxation; are secured by a Land Grant of Three Million Acres of the Finest Lands in Kansas and Colorado. In addition to this special grant the Company also owns Three Millions of Acres in Kansas, which are being rapidly sold to develop the country and improve the road. They are a first mortgage upon the extension of the road from Sheridan, Kansas, to Denver, Colorado. The road in operation, 437 miles long, upon which it is also a mortgage, NOW EARNS MORE THAN ENOUGH NET INCOME TO PAY THE INTEREST ON THE NEW LOAN. There is no better security in the market—this being in some respects better than Government Securities. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD. Price 96, and accrued Interest, in Currency. FINANCE AND TRADE.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 17, 1869.

The "bear" campaign on the stock exchange made further havoc with values to-day, and was the great feature of Wall street. The speculative securities were pressed for sale with much confidence by the "bears" during the morning, and later in the day the "bulls" became frightened, when stocks were thrown everboard almost without regard to prices. The feeling during the afternoon was gloomy, and for a time the market was bordering on a panic. The shrinkage in values has been enormous, and many stocks touched the lowest point for years past. A report is freely circulated that the Secretary of the Treasury will yield to the pressure for a change in his policy. Dispatches from Washington say the specie statement made by the New York City banks on the 8th instant shows the gold coin to be about $2,350,000, gold certificates $10,250,000, and gold bars $40,000; a total, including checks and coupons, of $13,250,000. Many rumors are current in regard to purposes of leading speculators who have been prominent in effecting the decline. One of these is that a meeting was held to-day to organize for an upward turn, and that they have this afternoon been buying. On the other hand it is vaguely rumored that important failures will occur.

Money market more active and rates plump 7 per cent. on call. There is a large demand for small currency from the interior but it is next to impossible to supply it even at a premium on bills of one, two, five and ten dollars.

Discounts are very dull and the best paper only passes at very high rates. Sterling nominal at 7½@8 per cent. Gold opened at 136¼, touched 136¾, and closed at 136½. Carrying rates, 1-32 per cent. per day. The clearances were $75,000,000.

Governments dull and weak. Coupons 1881, 121¼@121½; do. '62, 121¾@121¾; do. '64, 120½@120¾; do. '65, 120⅝@120⅞; do. new, 119⅛@119⅜; do. '67, 119½@119⅝; do. '68, 119¼@119½; 10-40s, 109¾@110; Pacifics, 108¾@109.

The Sub-Treasurer sold half a million in gold at 136 38 100@136 47-100.

State bonds dull: new Tennessees higher at 54¼; North Carolina weak; Missouris 86; old Tennessees 61; old Virginias 54; new do 58; old North Carolinas 53; new do 47.

Stocks closed weak and feverish. Mining Shares dull.

Copper Stocks at Boston: Copper Falls 8½; Franklin, 13; Hecla, 70; Hancock, 1½; Minnesota, 1⅝; Quincy. 24.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, Sept. 17, 1869.

There appeared to be more excitement to-day in regard to exports of oil eastward than anything else, and but little else, for the time being, was thought of or talked about. It is claimed by some parties that the shipments reported in this paper of yesterday were not correct, that they were entirely too large, and it was insinuated in some quarters, that the reporter had intentionally made the shipments much larger than they were in reality. That there was one error, and only one, we concede; the shipments were for two days instead of one, and it should have been so stated. It occasionally occurs, that the agent at the Junction of the Valley Road, whose duty it is to forward to the office of that Company here a statement, daily, of all the refined oil shipped over the road, is unable or neglects to send said report and the following day the reporter has two days reports, which heretofore have been footed up and published as one report, and the casual observer would be led from this to believe that it was one instead of two days shipments. This we acknowledge is wrong, and hereafter when two days shipments are received at one time we shall so state. But, we undestand that some parties take exception to the report, even admiting two days shipments instead of one, and allege that the actual shipments were not as large as reported. To post ourselves in regard to the matter, we took the trouble to-day to go over the same ground again, and the footings were the same—no more and no less. We copied from manifests dated September 14th and 15th, and if these gentlemen who are so much interested in the matter will take the trouble to examin, these manifests they will find that we are right; these two manifest call for as much oil as was reported in the GAZETTE of yesterday. It was also complained that the names of the shippers were not given. This is very easily explained. The manifests did not contain the names of the shippers, nor was there any one about the depot who could furnish the names, and, as a matter of course, we were obliged to omit them. The press has no interest in these shipments further than to report them correctly; errors may have occurred, we do not claim to be infalible, but we are very sure that they were not intentional, and further than that, we are always willing and ready to make corrections, when convinced we are wrong. The GAZETTE is not in the interest of any clique or faction; it makes no difference to us whether the shipments are 1,000 or 10,000 bbls per day, or whether refined is up or down.

CRUDE.

Market a shade lower with little or nothing done. Sale of 1,000 bbls spot at 14¾; 1,000 seller October at 14¾; and 3 cars on board cars at Parker's Landing at $5,50. Yesterday spot oil sold at 15 and was held firmly at that figure, showing a decline of a quarter of a cent.

REFINED.

Not a single sale reported; market dull and prices are nominally lower. September, last half, quoted at 32¾; October at 32½@32¾; and lines from September or Octobor to December 32½@32¾. From the above, it will be seen that refined also is off slightly, and as already remarked very dull.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, Sept. 17, 1869.

The market in a general way presents but little that is new or important. There is a moderate local demand for most of the leading articles, and a fair volume of business in the aggregate, while in regard to prices, there are no important changes. The receipts of produce generally are increasing and supplies of almost everything are fully up to the demand.

APPLES—Dull and in good supply but unchanged, ranging from $1,50@3,00 per bbl.

BUTTER—Is dull with increased receipts, and supply somewhat in excess of the demand; we now quote prime to choice at 30@32.

CRANBERRIES—Sales new crop eastern cultivated at $12@14 per bbl.

CEMENT—Johnstown Hydraulic Cement is quoted at $2,25 per bbl.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged, ranging from 14 to 17 cents, as to quality.

CARBON OIL—Demand more active and market firmer; sales round lots at 29 cents and small lots at 30@31.

EGGS—Irregular being quoted from 23@25.

FEATHERS—Dull; quoted at 80@85 cents to the trade, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—Is dull and in good supply, but unchanged. We continue to quote Western winter wheat flours, $6,50@6,75 for good, and $7@7,25 for choice. Little or no demand for spring wheat flours, and the supply in this market is almost exhausted.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged—but little offering and but little wanted. Prime red, $1,30, and prime white at $1,35@1,37. Oats in good demand and higher, we can report sales on track at 50c. and in store at 53@54c. Rye is in good demand at $1,10 and but few sellers at that price. Corn is quiet and unchanged; sales at 95 to $1,00. Barley is quiet—offerings very light $1,25 is still considered the standard price though choice fall would probably command $1,30.

HAY—Firmer. Sales at Allegheny Diamond market of 70 loads at $15 to $23 per ton.

HEMP—Very dull, $205 per ton.

HUSKS—Sales at 2¾@3 cts per pound.

LARD OIL—F. Sellers & Co. quote Extra No. 1, at $1,43@1,45, and No. 2, at $1,05@1,08

PEANUTS—Sales at 15 cents.

PEACHES—Dull and unchanged—ranging from $1 to $2 per box.

PLUMS—Scarce and higher, with sales at $4 to $4,50 per bushel.

POTATOES—Sales of Baltimore sweets at $5 to $5,25 and Jersays at 5,75 to $6,00.

SEEDS—Small sales of Timothy Seed at $4,00@4,25. The mills are offering $2,25 for Flaxseed—none in market. No demand for clover.

SALT—Is firmer, with sales of car load lots at $1,85 per bbl.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, September 17.—Market continues moderately active for most classes of goods and prices generally firm. Dress Goods are quite active. Woolens are also moving freely in the jobbing trade, but among clothiers the business is comparatively inert, the heavy trade being now well nigh over.

CHICAGO, September 17.—Cattle are dull, at $4@4,50 for fair to good cows, $4,75@5,25 for light steers, and $6@6,25 for fair to medium. Hogs are steady but quiet, at $8,37½@8,90 for common, $9@9,40 for fair to medium, and $9,50@10 for good to choice.

DR. EDGHILL came near being married, the other evening, at Osceola, Iowa. He had the license, and with his affianced, repaired to the house of a friend to have the thing settled, unknown to the girl's parents. AARON BUNDY and his wife, of Waverly, Mich., were arrested and lodged in jail, at Paw Paw, on the 11th, on the charge of starving to death their child, about five month of age. DURING the terrific gale last week a lady in Providence, Rhode Island, became alarmed for the safety of her two little children who were at school, and sent a servant to bring them home. The teacher refused to trust them in the streets in such a tempest, and the mother seeing the servant coming back alone believed that her fears were true and that something fearful had happened. No explanations could satisfy her, and she went into convulsions, from which she soon died.

A VALUABLE relic of Alexander von Humboldt has been placed on exhibition at the Springs, in Central Park, New York city: It is a fire screen, inlaid with mother-of-pearl and adorned with a faithful view of the royal castle of Potsdam, the family residence of the Kings of Prussia. It was purchased at the sale of the Humboldt effects, in Berlin, in 1860.

Abrams, having in the discharge of our duty, and under the solemnity of our oath, found the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree; yet believing that the crime committed by him was the result of wicked influences surrounding him, and not the result of a bad heart, we would respectfully ask the Governor to commute his sentence to ten years' imprisonment."

THE neck of land on the city front of Buffalo, between Buffalo river and Lake Erie, having been selected by various railway and mining companies as the most available depot from which to supply the west with Pennsylvania and other coal, a great rivalry has sprung up for the right to build a railway along the beach, to connect with different railways terminating at this point. Several railways connected with the coal trade are now building extensive improvements on this neck of land, to accommodate the coal trade.

SUIT has been entered in Equity Court of the District of Columbia against ex-Commissioner Theaker, of the Patent Office, by Andrew Whitley, Esq., assignee for a number of patents for improvements in reapers and mowers. It is charged that Mr. Theaker, when Commissioner of Patents, refused, for the space of fourteen months, to act on or give a decision upon an appeal from the decision of the Chief Examiner of the Patent Office, thus neglecting to do his proper ministerial work, and that the said delay resulted in damaging the plaintiff to the amount of $50,000.

RICHARD ROE, one of the Cadiz bank robbers, made his escape from the Columbus (O.) Penitentiary on the 14th. He was nailed up in a barrel at a dry kiln by Frank Hatch, an assistant foreman, when no one else was in the vicinity, and then taken on a dray to a shed outside the wall. The drayman, who was ignorant of what was going on, was sent back for a hammer, Hatch pretending to need it in opening the barrel. While he was gone the head of the barrel was taken off, and both Roe and Hatch effected their escape. The former was not missed until a farmer reported at the prison that he had seen a man with striped pants several miles up the river in company with three other men. Roe was sent from Hamilton county several years ago to serve a term of thirteen years. He is a dangerous man, and a reward of $200 has been offered for his recapture.

ON THE 3d inst. the Bellfonte Watchman published a double-leaded article with the astounding canard that Geo. S. Twitchell had been let out of prison, through the connivance of the Governor, the night before he was to have been executed, and that the dead body found in the cell on the following morning was not that of Twitchell, but of another person substituted in his place. At the time of its publication no notice was taken of the absurd story, but the Democratic press generally throughout the State having given extensive circulation to the assertion, Gov. Geary deemed it but just to himself to write to Peter Lyle, the Sheriff of Philadelphia, and to Wm. B. Perkins, the prison keeper there, both of whom are involved in the sensation, and a letter has been received from Col. Lyle denying the whole story as a wicked and absurd fabrication. Mr. Perkins sends an affidavit, sworn to and subscribed by himself, the physician in attendance, and all the attaches of the prison in any way concerned in the matter, to the effect that there is no possible doubt as to the fact of the body being that of Twitchell.

EMIGRATION to the West, it is stated, has received a great impetus from the completion of the Pacific Railroad, and from the work furnished to laborers on other railroad routes to California. SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the livor and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. my19:151-d&F

Just the Thing.—W. D. Duffy, merchant tailor, No. 24 Fifth avenue, has an elegant stock of fine goods for gentleman's wear, embracing all the best makes of foreign manufactory ;which he proposes to make up to your order in the best style, and reasonable prices.

Attention, Eigth Ward!—On our fifth page will be found the persons named to be voted for as a ward ticket for the coming election. Let there be a full turnout of all the Republicans of the ward and a good ticket nominated.

Among the Pennsylvanians registered in Paris on the 2d were the following Pittsburghers:

Mr. John S. Dickinson, Mr. W. R. Fitzimmons, Mr. C. Yeager, Mr. E House from Erie, Mr. W. C. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Russell, Mrs. W. D. Walbridge,

Megraw's.—The best place in the city to procure all the fancy brands of cigars and tobacco is Megraw's, No. 45 Hand street. Mr. Megraw also keeps constantly on hand a large assortment of pipes, pouches, and everything necessary to complete a smoker's outfit. No 45 Hand street street is the place to purchase.

After the Race.—Andrew Knox alleges that Joseph Downington received as stakeholder in a bet, on the late horse race at Oakland, forty dollars which, after the race, he retained possession of, notwithstanding frequent demands had been made for it. Alderman McMasters yesterday issued a warrant for Joseph's arrest on an information for larceny as bailee.

Alleged False Representations.—Patrick Ebbert alleged before Alderman McMasters that John Faas had obtained from him seven dollars by falsely representing that he was in the mineral-water, sarsaparilla, &c.. business, had an establishment in Birmingham and would return the amount in manufactured goods. The Alderman issued a warrant for John's arrest.

Personal.—Mr. Oliver B. Doud, leading man at the Opera House last season, is in the city on a brief visit, previous to going to New Orleans, where he is engaged for the coming season as leading man at Floyd's Theatre. If Mr. Doud pleases the amusement going public of the Crescent City as well as he did the citizens of Pittsburgh, both as an actor and a gentleman, his stay there will be a pleasant one.

For Claremont.—The number of inmates at the Work House will be increased by the following additions today: Jacob Keyser, Patrick Campbell, James Philips, Hugh F. Linn, James Parrett, John Zimmerman, Michael Dean, Barney O'Donnell, Wm. Kelley, Charles McFadden, Weisner Gould, Jno. Gilner, William Lunn, Jacob Abby, Albert Burnell, Jas. Watts, Fred Faulkner.

On a Tour.—To-day the Allegheny Park Commission, and several gentlemen, connected with the Park Improvements, start on a tour. They propose visiting Philadelphia, New York Baltimore, Boston, Washington, and the leading eastern cities, to gather information relative to Parks and their management. The company expects to be absent about ten days, and will doubtless have a very pleasant trip.

Aquatic—This afternoon between four and six o'clock the one mile straight a way race between Joseph L. Scott and Wm. Sharp, two of our best amateur oarsmen, will take place over the lower Monongahela course. The starting point has been fixed at the Monongahela bridge. Thos. Reese, Esq., has been chosen as referee. Mr. Scott has selected as judges Messrs. Gordon Jackson and James B. Butterfield. Messrs. Jas. B. Jones and John W. Carle will act in the same capacity for Mr. Sharp.

Inquest.—Justice Hollinghead, of Temperanceville, yesterday held an inquest on the body of John Samuels, a laborer in Fahnestock, Albree & Co.'s glass house. Verdict, that deceased came to his death by accidentally falling from a load of straw, causing dislocation of the spinal column.

Rough Usage.—Henry G. Wagoner made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday, charging Joseph Lippert with abusing his son William by striking him in the mouth with his fist. The difficulty occurred in a glass works at Birmingham, where the parties labored. Warrant issued.

Inquest.—Yesterday morning, about seven o'clock, the body of Willie Kay, drowned at Sharpsburgh last Saturday evening, was observed by a companion floating in the water near the bridge. The boy. with the aid of a friend, succeeded in securing the body and bringing it in shore, when Alderman Donaldson was notified. He held an inquest at which a verdict of accidental drowning was rendered.

Libel Suit Ended.—Charles B. Stein on Friday of last week instituted a suit for libel against O'Neill & Rook, editors and proprietors of the Daily Dispatch, charging them with libel in publishing an item reflecting on the character of his boarding house on Third avenue. Alderman Lynch held the defendants for a hearing, at which the prosecutor failed to put in an appearance, and the case was dismissed at his own cost.

Recaptured.—Charles Gibson, who it will be remembered, escaped from the work house about two weeks since with "Snibbs" Arnold, was recaptured yesterday by officers Grady and Gilstine, and sent back to that institution to serve out an unexpired term of fifteen days. He will not likely be allowed to remain there that long however, as an information has been made before the Mayor against him for burglary. He had on when arrested a coat which was identified by Mr. Ebert, on Penn street, as one stolen from his store which was broken open a few nights since. He will be sent for to day.

A Capius Case.—Mr. Peter Tatro, of the firm of Tatro & Williams, was arrested on a capius yesterday, at the suit of J. C. Kirkpatrick & Co., vs. Peter Tatro and J, B. Williams, owners of a process for distilling petroleum, and partners for the sale of rights to use the same. It appears that the plantiffs in this case, who are in the oil business in Philadelphia, purchased the right to use this patent process, for which they paid the sum of $10,000, and they now allege that it is worthless and that they were defrauded. Patrol at last accounts was in charge of an officer hunting bail, which he will probably procure.

The Boulevard.

The merits of this new style of pavement are beginning to attract attention, a fact which is made appearent by the increase in the business which Messrs. McCowan & Co., No. 65 Ohio street, Allegheny, are being favored with. For the purposes of sidewalks, cellars, yards, &c., the Boulevard is all that it claims to be and it is not strange that it is coming into favor, as a good article will always command attention. Messrs. McCowan & Co., 65 Ohio street, Allegheny, are alone authorized to lay the Boulevard in this vicinity.

Boarding House Robbed.

The boarding house of Mr. John Cambridge, at the corner of Penn and Seventeenth streets, was the scene of a wholesale robbery yesterday morning. Every trunk in the house, belonging to boarders, eight in number, was broken open and the contents carried off. The robbery, it is presumed, was committed about eight o'clock, and two young men who had been boarding at the house for ten days previous are suspected, as they have not been seen about the premises since the robbery was committed. About one hundred dollars worth of goods were stolen.

The Keystone Pottery.

The Keystone Pottery, Messrs. Kier & Co., proprietors, a home institution and one of the best of its character in the country, is rapidly acquiring a celebrity from the quality of the ware manufactured there. In every respect, the Queensware bearing the "Keystone" brand is fully equal to that heretofore of a very high price because of importation. The best materials in the hands of the best workmen, has accomplished this gratifying result. Purchasers in need of Queensware should call at the warehouse, 363 Liberty street, and examine the stock.

Lawrenceville in Motion.

A rousing meeting of the Republicans of Lawrenceville was held at the Forty-fourth street school house on Thursday evening. There were nearly one thousand persons in attendance, and great enthusiasm prevailed. The meeting organized by electing John W. Riddell, Esq., Chairman and Messrs. John Keil, Jr., and F. Marion Gardner as Secretaries. Able and patriotic addresses were delivered by Judge Shannon, Major A. M. Brown, Colonel Thomas M. Bayne and John H. Kerr, Esq. This section of the city is thoroughly aroused and can confidently be expected to do its full share of work in the present campaign.

Found at Last.

The man, F. C. Cook, implicated in the larceny of a lot of goods captured at his home by the Allegheny police about ten days ago, has at last been heard from. Chief Bowden ascertained that he was in custody in Marietta, Ohio, on a charge of passing counterfeit money, and visited him there. He makes no denial of the counterfeit business. He denies ownership in the dry goods found on his premises, but has nothing to say regarding the carpenter's tools which were also secured. Chief Bowden thought it best to leave him in the hands of the Government officials, and did so, returning home yesterday morning.

Interesting Lecture.

We would call the attention of the public generally to the Lecture to be delivered on to-morrow evening, in the basement of St. Paul's Cathedral, by Dr. Rogers, of Memphis Tennessee. The wide publicity which the gentleman has acquired on account of his long connection with the Protestant Episcopal Church, his Ritualistic tendencies and practices, and his ultimate conversion to the Catholic Church, will be a subject interesting alike to Catholics and Protestants. The origin, rise, and progress of Ritualism will form the subject of the Lecture. This subject treated by a man of such brilliant talents, such rare eloquence, and such a pleasing address as the distinguished Dr. Rogers should secure a crowded house. Let all, then who can, attend the Lecture, and we promise that they will be edified and instructed.

The additional members of the Committee, and the Republican citizens of the ward are expected to be present.

A Second Edition.

The "infant of the period" at 'Squire Humbert's office, claimed our attention yesterday. If what transpired concerning it be not considered as reflecting in any degree upon our civilization, a different opinion may be entertained of the circumstances connected with the finding, and exposition for sale, of another waif, which we have now to relate. A few days since, in the country adjacent to Birmingham, some women engaged in picking elderberries discovered among the bushes a female infant, a month or more of age, half famished. The novelty of the finding, if no stronger feeling, induced them to take charge of the little creature, hasten home with it and provide for its wants. Unfortunately the hands into which the waif had fallen were experienced in the raising of children, and were supplied with a goodly number. What had been done on the impulse of the moment—thus the noblest deeds are performed—was now regretted, and how to get rid of the encumbrance was the next consideration. The idea struck the heads of the family of taking the babe to market with their produce, hoping thus to secure a "customer" for it, and accordingly bright and early Friday morning they appeared in the Birmingham market. They succeeded in attracting much sympathy for the object of their solicitude, and equal disgust for the inhuman exposition of it in the shambles, but did not find "customer" at any price, and the last account we had of the custodians of the infant was that they were arranging to send the child to the County Home, a step they should have taken in the first instance.

Master Mechanics' Convention.

The members of the Master Mechanics' Association, which held its annual session in this city, having completed their business, have been on a tour of inspection. Thursday afternoon, as previously announced, they visited the principal manufacturing establishments on the Monongahela river, and yesterday morning at eight o'clock they proceeded in carriages from the Monongahela House to the Allegheny Valley Railroad depot, where they took a special train and visited the Bridge Works and the Union Iron Mills, and thence back to Park's Steel Works, Hussey, Wells & Co.'s, the Duquesne Iron and Steel Works, and Coleman, Rahm & Co.'s; thence to the Fort Wayne Railroad depot, where a train was in waiting to carry them to the outer depot, where they visited the Fort Wayne shops and other points of interest in that locality.

This morning they go by special train to Altoona to visit the car shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at that place.

Fight in a Bar Room.

Last night about nine o'clock, Patrick Gallagher and William Fentz, who had been imbibing pretty freely, got into a fight in Colcoff's tavern, Fifth avenue near Miltenberger street, which resulted in considerable damage to both in the shape of black eyes, and various cuts, made by the beer glasses which they used as weapons. Gallagher received a severe cut on the hand, while Fentz had his head cut in several places. The disturbance was at its height when the police stopped and arrested both parties. They were locked up and will be examined to-morrow.

Country Flannels and blankets—new goods—at Bates & Bell's.

Grand Opening of Fall and Winter Dress Goods at J. W. Barker & Co.'s, No. 59 Market Street, on Monday next.

It will be agreeable news to our lady readers to announce that Messrs. J. W. Barker & Co. have already received their first large importation of fall and winter goods, which they will throw open to the trade on Monday next. The stock is remarkably fine and has been manufactured expressly for the retail trade. It comprises rich dress silks in all the new shades, silk warp epinglines, plain and fancy velour russe, all wool epinglines, Irish and French poplins, black barathea, English and French bombazines, Biarretz cloth, Russell cords, cretonnes, valencias, serges, merinoes, empress cloths, etc., all of which will commend themselves to lady visitors. The general lines of ordinary dry goods and housekeeping goods are very full and embrace many new novelties. We trust none of our lady readers will fail to be in attendance at the opening, as a rich treat in the exhibition of new goods is in store for them, and besides they will be agreeably surprised at the general reduction in prices throughout all the departments from those which ruled last fall and winter.

On Tuesday the opening will be supplimented by the exposition of a fresh stock of silk plushes, velvets and velveteens, Astrachan cloth, seal skins, Polarian cloakings, English waterproofs, cloaks, shawls, &c., on which occasion an unusually large attendance of patrons is expected. Messrs. Baaker & Co. have exhibited commendable enterprise in thus bringing early to the city so large and acceptable a stock of choice fall and winter goods, and we hope the attendance at the several opening occasions will show that the people appreciate the efforts so universrily and constantly made to please the public by this old and reliable house.

Neat Fitting and Durable Clothes and where to Purchase.

Those of our gentlemen readers who can enjoy well made and neat fitting clothing should not fail to award proper consideration on the claims of public favor and patronage of the well known Merchant Tailoring house of Messrs. McPherson, Muhlenbring & Co., No. 10 Sixth, late St. Clair street, these gentlehave but recently opened a very superior and varied stock of clothys, cassimeres and vestings which we are free to say from our own general inspection that a wider or better selection can hardly be attained. The firm are thoroughly acquainted with every department of their business and bestow great care in all their work, being jealous of sustaining the high reputation for the neatness and durability of the garment they manufacture. None but the most expert and skilled mecanics are employed in the sewing room, and the work is principaly prepared by the hand. From long personal acquaintance with both members of the firm, we are prepared to unhesitatingly commend them in high terms to our readers as eminently worthy a large share of public confidence and patronage. Their prices are very reasonable and inducing, while satisfaction is guaranteed in every suit of clothes, or garment they furnish. We ask our friends to to favor them with a visit and judge for themselves, as to the superiority of the stock, the quality and style of workmanship and the reasonableness of the prices charged.

New Goods at a New House.

Mr. B. Oppenheimer, No. 82 Market street, merchant tailor and dealer in men and boys clothing, announces that he has received a full and complete stock of clothing and goods, which he is prepared to manufacture, at the shorted notice, in the most fashionable styles. His new store is supplied with the most varied assortment of cloths, cassimeres and vestings and patrons are assured that no garments are manufactured unless guaranteed to prove satisfactory both as to material and workmanship. A very fine stock of ready-made goods and furnishing articles has also been offered by Mr. Oppenheimer, and our friends in need of such goods are earnestly advised to repair thither. The house has long enjoyed a reputation for fairness, and we trust our readers will continue to repose that confidence which it so eminently deserves. A full and complete line of furnishing goods will be found on hand which cannot fail to prove satisfactory, and the purchaser can depend on the fact that every article found in the stock is new and of the latest and most improved designs and patterns. We cheerfully endorse this firm as worthy of public confidence and patronage, and bespeak for it a full share of the favor of our readers.

Colored Episcopalians.

Under the heading "Religious Intelligence," will be found brief reference to the proposed organization of a Colored Episcopal Church, by the Rev. B. F. Crooke, Rector of Christ Episcopal Church, Allegheny city. We take pleasure in stating that a special service will be held at this Church, on Sunday afternoon, (to-morrow,) at 3½ o'clock, for the colored people. Hon. Thos. J. Bigham and Prof. Dale, (colored,) will deliver addresses. All of our colored friends, formerly accustomed to attend Episcopal services, and others friendly to the movement, should attend without fail. Rev. Mr. Brooke is very desirous to organize a regular church service for their especial benefit, and is laboring assiduously to promote their interests.

All who love a dainty and substantial repast properly prepared and put on the boards, will take advantage of this announcement.

Life Insurance Dividends—False Representations.

Under this caption the New York Insurance Monitor comes out heartily against the deceitful representations of some of the Life Companies in regard to "profits" and "dividends."

The very absurdity of these pretences ought sufficiently to expose their falsity, but it seems that the ingenuity and "mathematics" of the companies are too much for average common sense, and we find otherwise intelligent men who are actually made to believe that they have a good thing in their "dividends;" even professional financiers and bankers may be found who think that in this case you can "eat your cake and have it too;" that you can get your money's worth of life insurance and a dividend besides, and from the high character of many of the agents of these companies we are bound to presume that they too are decived or they would not make these representations which this Monitor's article characterizes as a "gross fraud."

The above, from an exchange goes far to establish the claim of the Co-operative Life Insurance Co., of this city, that its system is the fairest, simplest, best, yet devised.
